Successful Community Outreach

Wednesday, March 10, 2010 • 11:30-1 p.m.
Fort McDowell Adventures, Fountain Hills

Do you know how impactful successful community outreach can be for your organization? Come to Fort McDowell Adventures in Fountain Hills and hear Teniqua Broughton, Program Director, Free Arts of Arizona, Angie Delgadillo, Arizona Community Outreach Director, Center for Progressive Leadership, and Eileen Snoddy, Community Outreach, SRP, discuss how your institution can better connect with new and core constituencies through successful community outreach.

After the presentation, tour the River of Time Museum and learn the story of those who came before the present populations of Fountain Hills and the Lower Verde River Valley.

LOCATION AND INFORMATION

From Mesa, follow the Beeline Highway (87) past the Fountain Hills entrance at Saguaro (stop light), past the Fort McDowell Casino (stop light), cross over the Verde River (approximately 1/2 mile from the Casino). There is a sign marking the road on the left. Stay to the right on Hiawatha Hood for 2 1/2 miles to Fort McDowell Adventures. Parking is free and adjacent to the main entrance.
